

EASTER VIGIL IN THE HOLY NIGHT

Holy Saturday

THE PASCHAL TRIDUUM

The Paschal Triduum is the three-day celebration for which Lent prepares us. From Holy Thursday evening to Easter Sunday, our Lenten mood of repentance gives way to our eager anticipation of the Resurrection of the Lord, the culmination of the entire liturgical year. These days are not the memorial of three consecutive events in Jesus' life on earth, but our participation in the reality of Christ's death and resurrection still active and at work in our lives today.

Lent ends quietly on Thursday afternoon as the Church enters the Triduum ("three days"). On Thursday night the Church begins a time of prayer and fasting, a time of keeping watch, that lasts into the great Vigil between Saturday and Sunday. The Church emphasizes that the fasting of Good Friday and, if possible, Holy Saturday is integral to the keeping of these days and the preparation for the sacraments of initiation celebrated at the Easter Vigil.

EASTER VIGIL IN THE HOLY NIGHT

The long preparation of the elect, the lenten disciplines and fast of the faithful, the vigiling and fasting and prayer that have gone on since Thursday night—all culminate in the Easter Vigil liturgy. On this night the Church gathers to spend much time listening to scriptures, praying psalms, acclaiming the death and resurrection of the Lord. Only then are the elect called forward and prayed over, challenged to renounce evil and affirm their faith in God, led to the font and baptized with the blessed water. The newly baptized are then anointed with chrism and the entire assembly joins in universal prayer. The great Vigil reaches its high point in the eucharistic prayer of praise and thanksgiving and finally in the sharing of the eucharist itself.

EASTER PROCLAMATION: THE EXSULTET REMAIN STANDING

LITURGY OF THE WORD

At the Vigil, the Liturgy of the Word is an extended time of readings, silence, and the singing of psalms and canticles. On this night when the faithful know the death and resurrection of the Lord in baptism and eucharist, the Church needs first to hear these scripture readings, which are the foundation of our life together: the creation story, Abraham and Isaac, the dividing of the sea, the poetry of Isaiah and Baruch and Ezekiel, the proclamation of Paul to the Romans, and the gospel account of Jesus' resurrection.

This Joyful Eastertide

Dutch folk tune, arr. Charles Wood

This joyful Eastertide, away with sin and sorrow!
My love, the Crucified, hath sprung to life this morrow.

*Had Christ, that once was slain, ne'er burst his three-day prison,
Our faith had been in vain: but now hath Christ arisen!*

My flesh in hope shall rest, and for a season slumber:
Till trump from east to west shall wake the dead in number.

Death's flood hath lost his chill, since Jesus crossed the river:
Lovers of souls, from ill my passing soul deliver.
